Finning employees return to work

(CBC) - More than 1,000 employees at Finning Canada have returned to work, after ratifying a new three-year contract and ending a six-week-old strike.

The new contract gives them a 41/2 per cent raise in the first year, backdated to May 1, and four per cent in each of the following years.

It also includes improvements to the pension, shift premiums and allowances.
