- a) A Union Bargaining committee shall not consist of more than one Employee from the bargaining unit and the Canadian Union of Public Employees National Representative.
- b) Any representatives of the Union on the Bargaining Committee, who is in the employ of the Employer, shall have the right to attend negotiating meetings held within working hours without loss of remuneration. An Employee shall receive the pay and benefits provided for in the Agreement however, the Union shall reimburse the Employer for all pay during the period of absence.

6.04 The Union shall have the right to have the assistance of the Canadian Union of Public Employees National Representative when negotiating with the Employer and/or upon request of a bargaining unit member(s).

ARTICLE 7 – DISCIPLINE OR DISCHARGE

7.01 All discipline shall be issued in a timely manner. A disciplinary penalty will depend on the seriousness of the conduct of the Employee and any culmination of prior incidents of misconduct. Progressive discipline will normally be used but a single serious incident of misconduct may result in discharge. No Employee shall be disciplined or dismissed without just cause.

7.02 An Employee shall be advised in advance of disciplinary meetings and shall have the right to have their Union Steward, or another person designated by the Union, present where the disciplinary action taken involves a written reprimand or more serious disciplinary sanctions.

7.03 Personnel Files

An Employee shall have the right to access and review her personnel file at a time mutually agreed to by the Employee and the Employer.

7.04 Upon expiration of thirty (30) months from the date of a letter of discipline, the letter shall be removed from the Employee's personnel file, provided there is no other discipline on the Employee's personnel file.

ARTICLE 8 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Definition of a Grievance

A Grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of the Agreement.

- 8.02 a) The Employee(s) shall have the right at any step of the Grievance procedure to the assistance of a Canadian Union of Public Employees National Representative.
- b) An Employee shall have the right at any step of the Grievance procedure to seek the assistance of a Union Steward.

8.03 The Union shall notify the Employer, in writing, of the name(s) of the representative(s) appointed under Article 8.02(b).

8.04 It is recognized that it is in the interests of all parties to seek an early resolution to differences. Discussions between the parties shall take place to investigate a possible Grievance, or to discuss a possible resolution, prior to the formal filing of a grievance by any party. Should satisfactory settlement not be reached the Grievance shall be processed in accordance with Article 8.05.

8.05 Settling of a Grievance

A written Grievance must include a statement of the following:

- a) the name(s) of the aggrieved, and
- b) the nature of the Grievance in clear and concise detail, and
- c) the section(s) where this Agreement is claimed to be violated, and
- d) the remedy or correction the Employer is requested to make.

Step 1

The Grievance shall be filed in writing to the Personnel Committee within fifteen (15) working days of the incident or when it first came to the Employee's attention. The Personnel Committee will meet with the grievor and her representative within ten (10) working days and will submit a decision in writing to the Union within five (5) working days of the meeting. Working days is defined as Tuesday to Friday and does not include Saturday, Sunday, Monday and General Holidays.

Step 2

If the Grievance is not settled in Step 1, the Union must, within ten (10) working days after receiving the Personnel Committee decision, file the Grievance in writing to the Board. The Board will meet with the grievor and her representative within ten (10) working days and will submit a decision in writing to the Union within five (5) working days of the meeting.

8.06

Arbitration

- a) Failing settlement at Step 2, either party may refer the Grievance to Arbitration by providing written notice to the other party within fifteen (15) working days of the reply at Step 2. Upon agreement between the Board and the Union, a single Arbitrator may be used.
- b) The written notice shall contain a statement of the Grievance and the name of the complainant's appointee to the Arbitration Board.
- c) The Employer shall, within five (5) working days of receipt of the notification, inform the complainant of its appointee to the Arbitration Board.
- d) The two (2) appointees so selected shall, within five (5) working days of the appointment of the Employer's representative, appoint a third person as chairperson.
- e) Should the two (2) appointees fail to agree upon a chairperson within the five (5) days period, either appointee may request that the Director of Mediation Services appoint a chairperson for the Board.
- f) Each party to the difference shall bear the expenses of its respective nominee to the arbitration board. The fees and expenses, if any, of the chairman of the Grievance Board shall be borne by the parties to the dispute in equal shares.
- g) Where the parties agree to a single Arbitrator to hear the Grievance, each party shall pay one-half (1/2) of the Arbitrator's fees and related expenses.
- h) The time limits set out in both the Grievance and Arbitration procedure may be extended by written agreement between the parties.

- i) An Employee required to attend a meeting with the Board dealing with Grievances/Arbitrations shall suffer no loss of pay when the meeting is held during her scheduled working hours.

8.07 The time limits in the Grievance and Arbitration procedures are mandatory. An Arbitrator or Arbitration Board may make such orders, as it considers fair and reasonable, but shall not alter, change or amend any provisions of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 – SENIORITY

9.01 Seniority is defined as the length of service with the Employer. For current Employees at the date of signing this Collective Agreement, all prior service will be counted.

9.02 The Employer shall maintain a seniority list showing the date upon which each Employee's service commenced. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union Steward in January of each year.

9.03 An Employee shall not lose seniority rights if she is absent from work because of sickness, accident, lay-off, or leave of absence approved by the Employer.

9.04 An Employee shall only lose her seniority in the event:

- a) she is discharged for just cause;
- b) she resigns;
- c) she is absent from work in excess of three (3) working days without sufficient cause or without notifying the Employer;
- d) she fails to return within five (5) working days following a lay-off after being notified at the last recorded address by registered mail to do so. It shall be the responsibility of the Employee to keep the Employer informed of her address;
- e) she is laid off for a period longer than six (6) months.

ARTICLE 10 – LAY-OFFS AND RECALL

10.01 Both parties recognize that job security shall increase in proportion to length of service, therefore, in the event of a lay-off, where ability and qualifications are equal; Employees shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority.

- 10.02 Employees shall be recalled in the order of their seniority, provided they are qualified and have the ability and desire to do the work. Employees recalled to do work at a lower rated job than the job previously held prior to lay-off shall receive the rate of pay for such lower rated job until an opening is available in their previous classification.
- 10.03 Employees shall remain on a recall list for six (6) months. Employees will not accumulate seniority while on lay-off.
- 10.04 No new Employees shall be hired until those laid off have been given the opportunity of re-employment.

ARTICLE 11 – PROMOTIONS AND STAFF CHANGES

- 11.01 a) All positions will be subject to a competitive process. The Employer's intent will be to fill vacancies from within when qualified current Employees apply.
- b) When a vacancy occurs or a new position is created in the Library, the Employer may fill the position temporarily and will post the notice in the Library for five (5) working days, so that all Employees have an opportunity to apply if they so desire. Applications from current Employees shall be in writing. Working days is defined as when the Library is open for business.
- 11.02 Employer's notice shall contain the nature of the position, qualifications and abilities required, hours of work and rate of pay.
- 11.03 Promotions will be awarded to Employees who meet the qualifications of the position and have the ability to perform the duties required.
- 11.04 The successful internal applicant shall be placed on a trial period of thirty (30) calendar days. Conditional upon satisfactory completion of the trial period, the Employee shall continue in the new classification. In the event the applicant proves unsatisfactory or the applicant deems the position unsatisfactory, she shall be returned to her former position and wage rate without loss of seniority. The Employer or Employee will provide one calendar week written notice of the decision to return to the former position.

- 11.05 The Employer shall notify the Union Steward of all appointments, hiring, promotions, lay-offs, transfers, recalls and termination of employment within the bargaining unit within ten (10) working days.
- 11.06 An Employee that is the successful candidate to new position or another position within the bargaining unit shall be placed on the salary grid which ensures the Employee will receive a minimum of a 5% increase on her wage. The Employee will advance through the steps of their classification level and will be eligible for future general salary increases negotiated.

ARTICLE 12 – HOURS OF WORK

- 12.01 The Library hours of work are determined by the Library Board with varying shifts covering its hours of operation. Staff are expected to work day and evening shifts.
- 12.02 The Employer will determine shift schedules and once established and established in writing, the shift schedule shall become the Employee's regular hours of work. The Employer will give thirty (30) days notice of changes to shift schedules, unless there are extenuating circumstances.
- 12.03 If extra hours are required or additional hours are added to the current Library operations, they will be offered as equally as possible to all qualified current Employees. If current Employees do not accept such hours, the additional hours will be made available to new Employees.
- 12.04 Some flexibility of daily hours of work may be arranged by mutual consent, in writing, of individual Employees and the Employer.
- 12.05 Each Permanent Full-time and Part-time Employee will be given two (2) consecutive days off each working week.
- 12.06 Employees may exchange shifts amongst themselves provided that they make such a request to their supervisor and the supervisor approves the request prior to the shift change. Shift changes will only be granted under the condition that there will be no increase in the cost to the Board.
- 12.07 Employees are entitled to a total paid break of:
- a) Two fifteen (15) minute paid rest/coffee breaks for shifts seven (7) hours, or more;
 - b) One fifteen (15) minute rest/coffee break for each shift that is less than seven (7) hours;

Employees are entitled to an unpaid break of:

- Up to one (1) hour lunch break for any shift longer than five (5) hours. Timing of the break(s) is dependent on the needs of the Library.
- 12.08 An Employee's attendance, where required at a staff meeting, either before or after their shift shall be paid regular pay. If the required meeting is on an Employee's day off, the Employee will be paid at the overtime rate.
- 12.09 No current Employee of the Sundre Municipal Library shall have their hours of work reduced during the life of the Collective Agreement.
- 12.10 No Employee of the Sundre Municipal Library shall be required to work more than two (2) Saturdays in a one (1) month period (except in months where there are five (5) Saturdays) and will not be required to work two (2) consecutive Saturdays. The Employer may, due to vacations or sick leave schedule Employees to work more than two (2) consecutive Saturdays in a one (1) month period.

ARTICLE 13 – OVERTIME

- 13.01 Overtime rates shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1.5 x) the Employee's regular rate of pay for any work performed beyond eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours per week.
- 13.02 An Employee who is called in and required to work outside her regularly scheduled hours shall be paid a minimum of one (1) hour at the overtime rate.
- 13.03 An Employee cannot claim overtime without the prior written approval of the Employer.
- 13.04 No Employee shall be required to take time off in lieu of being paid overtime. However, an Employee may bank time off in lieu of being paid overtime, at the applicable overtime rates subject to the following:
- a) Such time off shall be granted based on the overtime rate when banked, times the actual hours worked. The total number of overtime hours banked and taken is not to exceed forty (40) hours (i.e. sixty (60) straight time hours) in any calendar year. Any overtime accumulated prior to December 1 of any year must be scheduled prior to December 1 and taken prior to December 31 of that year, or shall be paid out.

- b) The time shall be taken at a later date mutually agreeable to the Board and the Employee.

ARTICLE 14 – PAID HOLIDAYS

14.01 The Employer recognizes the following paid General Holidays:

New Years Day	August Civic Holiday
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Easter Sunday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

and any other day proclaimed as a holiday by Federal, Provincial or Municipal Governments.

14.02 When any of the General Holidays fall on an Employee's scheduled day off, the Employee will receive another day off with pay at the regular rate taken at a time mutually agreed upon by the Employer and the Employee, or an extra day's pay at the regular rate in lieu.

ARTICLE 15 – ANNUAL VACATIONS

15.01 Annual vacation shall be earned in accordance with the Employee's years of service as set out below. Vacation is usually earned in one year and taken in the next year, but may be taken in the year in which it is earned subject to approval of the Employer. Vacation cannot be carried over from year to year without the prior approval of the Employer.

Vacation credits may be taken as follows:

- a) in one continuous period, or
- b) in separate blocks of not less than five (5) consecutive working days,
- c) single days may be taken with prior approval of the Employer.

15.02 Permanent Full-time and Permanent Part-time Employees shall receive an annual vacation with pay in accordance with their years of employment as follows:

After completion of eight (8) years service, twenty (20) working days paid vacation,

After completion of fifteen (15) years service, twenty-five (25) working days paid vacation.

- 15.03 All Employees will arrange vacation in consultation with the Employer in order to ensure continuous coverage of their duties. Once vacations are authorized, they shall not be changed other than in cases of emergency, or by mutual agreement with the Employer.
- 15.04 Where a Paid Holiday falls during the period of an Employee's annual vacation, the Employee's schedule vacation shall be extended accordingly.
- 15.05 Vacation entitlement is not earned when an Employee is absent for thirty (30) or more calendar days.
- 15.06
- 1) Part-time, vacation pay will be 4% of regular wages for up to four (4) years of service and 6% during the fifth (5th) and subsequent years of service, paid on each pay cheque. Permanent Part-time Employees may choose to take a vacation with pay as follows and must make such selection by January 1 of each year:

After completion of one (1) and up to four (4) years of service, two (2) calendar weeks;

Three (3) calendar weeks during the fifth and subsequent years of service.
 - 2) Temporary and Casual Employees shall receive pay in lieu of annual vacation, calculated on their normal pay, on the following basis:
 - a) 4% during the first through four years of service;
 - b) 6% during the fifth and subsequent years of service.

ARTICLE 16 – SICK LEAVE

- 16.01 Sick leave benefits are intended solely for the purpose of protecting an Employee from loss of income when the Employee is unable to work due to illness or non-compensable injury.
- 16.02 A permanent Employee shall earn sick leave benefits at the rate of 1.5 working days for each complete month worked, to a maximum entitlement of twenty (20) working days.
- 16.03 An Employee who is unable to work due to illness or non-compensable injury shall be paid sick leave from the Employee's earned entitlements and the remaining sick leave entitlements shall be reduced accordingly.
- 16.04 An Employee may request sick leave entitlements for the purpose of attending medical, dental, or other approved health related appointments.
- 16.05 An absence of three (3) consecutive working days or more will require substantiation by a certificate from the Employee's attending medical practitioner. The Employer shall reimburse the cost for this certificate to the Employee.
- 16.06 The Employer (at the Employer's expense) may require that a qualified medical practitioner examine an Employee when it is considered that an Employee is unable to perform her duties due to a disability or illness.
- 16.07 Employees shall have the ability to use up to three (3) working days per year from their sick leave, as per Article 16.02 for personal/wellness days. These requests shall not be unreasonably denied.

ARTICLE 17 – POLITICAL ACTIVITY & COURT LEAVE17.01 Political Activity
